

Pupil Premium – Allocation £57,000

Spending the Pupil Premium Allocation 2013 -2014

- Paying for non-residential trips enabling access to a range of enrichment activities.
- Teaching assistants are employed to work with groups within class and away from class to provide extra support for learning as well social and emotional development.
- Training for teachers to create outstanding environments for learning.
- Primary science training to enrich children’s scientific opportunities.
- Athletics subscription so that children can further develop their skills at school and home.
- Maths games library for children to exchange games to take home enabling them to practise and consolidate skills.

Key Stage One Attainment Scores

	Reading	Writing	Maths
School	16.4	16.1	15.3
Local Authority	15.5	14.3	15.3
National	14.8	13.5	14.8

Key Stage Two Progress Scores

	Reading	Writing	Maths
--	---------	---------	-------

Progress Scores	6	6.6	5.7
-----------------	---	-----	-----